Beethoven's Fifth

Saturday 5th March 2011 at 7.30pm
St Saviour's Church, St Albans

Brahms	Academic Festival Overture
Beethoven	Piano Concerto No.5 'Emperor' (Alissa Firsova, piano)
Beethoven	Symphony No.5

Alissa Firsova was born in 1986 in Moscow into a family of composers. In 1991 she and her family moved to England, and at the age of 8 she began studying piano. In 1999 Alissa gained a full scholarship at the Purcell School where she continued studying piano and composition before taking her degree at the Royal Academy of Music. Alissa lives and works in St Albans.

Brahms's famous overture was written to celebrate the University of Breslau's award of an honorary degree to Brahms in 1879 and is a potpourri of German student songs celebrating the less intellectual aspects of college life: wenching, wining, and freshman initiation! Order and dignity are restored in two of Beethoven's most celebrated works - indeed two of the most famous works ever written.
